

Calpe '99 Conference

AMMM

Mediterranean Maritime Heritage Forum '99

Academic Programme

Thursday 18th November

Meeting of the Association of Mediterranean Maritime Museums Forum (restricted to Members of the Association of Mediterranean Maritime Museums).

Calpe '99 Conference

Gibraltar, Mediterranean History and World Heritage

You can register here by fax or e-mail

Friday 19th November

Day 1– Session 1: World Heritage – Local Studies

Chair Dr Christopher Young, UK World Heritage Policy Adviser

0930-1015

Dr Clive Finlayson, Director, The Gibraltar Museum, Gibraltar

Gibraltar's World Heritage – an introduction

1015-1100

Dr Roger Knight, Deputy Director, National Maritime Museum, Greenwich, United Kingdom

A museum within a World Heritage Site: the repositioning of Greenwich

1100-1130

Coffee

1130-1215

Richard Holdsworth, The Historic Dockyard, Chatham, Kent, United Kingdom

Chatham Historic Dockyard – history and its future as a World Heritage Site

1215-1245

Discussion

1300-1530

Lunch

Day 1- Session 2: World Heritage – Regional Issues

Chair: Dr Juan Zozaya Stabel-Hansen, Museo de America, Madrid

1530-1615

Dr Christopher Young, World Heritage Policy Adviser, United Kingdom

UNESCO World Heritage Sites – the UK perspective

1615-1645

Tea

1645-1730

Minja Yang, Centre du Patrimoine Mondial UNESCO, Paris, France

Heritage and Development in World Heritage Cities in Asia

1730-1815

Dr Valentín Villaverde Bonilla, Prehistory Dept., Valencia University, Spain & Dr Rafael Martínez del Valle,

Director Museo de Arte Rupestre, Valltorta, Spain

El arte rupestre Levantino en la Península Ibérica y su declaración como patrimonio cultural de la humanidad (UNESCO 1998).

The Rock Art of the Levant coast of the Iberian Peninsula and its declaration as cultural heritage of humanity

(UNESCO 1998)

1815-1900

Dr Timothy Insoll, Department of Archaeology, University of Manchester, United Kingdom

Timbuktu - A World Heritage Site and its links with Gibraltar and Al-Andalus

1900-1930

Discussion

Saturday 20 November

Day 2 – Session 1: Medieval Case Studies

Chair Dr Clive Finlayson, Director Gibraltar Museum

0930-1015

Don Francisco Giles Pacheco, Director, Museo de El Puerto Santa María, Cádiz, Spain

Excavating Medieval Gibraltar

1015-1100

Dr Juan Zozaya Stabel-Hansen, Conservador, Museo de America, Madrid, Spain

Evolución y Africanización de los Sistemas constructivos en el mundo Islámico occidental.

Evolution and Africanization of the construction systems of the western Islamic world.

1100-1130

Coffee

1130-1215

Dr D Guillermo Rosselló, Director Museo Palacio Ayamano de Mallorca, Spain.

El registro arqueológico cerámico transicional del medievo al renacimiento en el Mediterraneo occidental.

The archaeological ceramic transitional register from the Medieval period to the Renaissance in the western Mediterranean.

1215-1300

Dr Antonio Almagro Gorbea, Director de Escuela de Estudios Arabes, Granada, Spain.

Restauración y conservación del Castillo Islamico de Almuñecar, Granada

Restoration and conservation of the Islamic Castle of Almuñecar, Granada

1300-1330

Discussion

1330-1530

Lunch

Day 2 – Session 2: Mediterranean Maritime Case Studies

Chair Dr Roger Knight, Deputy Director National Maritime Museum Greenwich

1530-1615

Mensun Bound, Director of Marine Archaeology, University of Oxford, United Kingdom

Underwater Archaeology in the Mediterranean

1615-1645

Tea

1645-1730

Elvira Mata i Enrich, Director Barcelona Maritime Museum, Barcelona, Spain.

Working with and Conserving the Ships of the Mediterranean

1730-1815

Zafira Hadiou, Hellenic Maritime Museum, Piraeus, Athens, Greece.

Museums, Heritage and Working with Children – the Mediterranean Perspective

1815-1900

Dr Clive Finlayson, Director Gibraltar Museum, Gibraltar.

Modelling Strategies of Mediterranean Resource Exploitation

1900-1930

Discussion

Sunday 21 November

Day 3: Session 1 - General Discussion and Conclusions

0930-1000

Dr Christopher Young – World Heritage – Local Studies

1000-1030

Dr Juan Zozaya Stabel-Hansen – World Heritage – Regional Issues

1030-1100

Dr Clive Finlayson – Medieval Case Studies

1100-1130

Dr Roger Knight – Mediterranean Maritime Case Studies

1200 Day 3: Session 2 – Excursion to Gibraltar Heritage Sites